The plaintiff who will appear in Haiti must bring two of the following: a passport, a birth certificate, voters registration card, social security card or drivers license.

The original or photocopy of the marriage certificate must be in the possession of the plaintiff in court. A notarized affidavit by the plaintiff stating the exact date and place of marriage, the name of the husband and maiden name of the wife, may be used in lieu of the marriage certificate.

The information stated above is true to the best of my knowledge.
